Conclusion of Project "Comparison of Region Based on Sales"

1- This project is designed to help create a dashboard to visualize the sales comparison between two selected regions.

2- To increase sales, the organization can take preventive measures using dashboards.

3- This project provides insights of sales comparison between two regions based on sub – categories.

4- This project also provides the total number of orders made by a total number of customers.

5- This also provides the total number of products that participated in sales.

6- In this project total sales and average sales per order are also calculated.

7- Each sub – category can be visualized by this project.